THEOLOGY

Wielding the Sword - Bible Doctrine as the Foundation of Faith

Led By: Rem Beitel

The Apostle Paul admonished the saints in Ephesus to take up the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God, as part of their spiritual armor. If the Bible is the sword with which we fight spiritual battles, sound doctrine is the handle—the interpretive framework—by which it is wielded. As a soldier of Christ, do you have a firm grip on the handle? Can you tell others confidently what you believe and why? Fortunately, you are never too old (or too young) to establish a proper grip on the Word through sound doctrine.

This survey course provides an introduction to major Bible doctrines and discusses why each is essential to our personal growth, to our public witness and to our credibility. The class is intended to encourage, and form the basis for, further in-depth study of each doctrine, and to equip believers to identify, understand and rationally defend the foundations of the Christian faith. This class is intended for believers at every stage of spiritual development. Parents are also encouraged to consider this class for high school students preparing to enter today's challenging college environment.

BIBLE EXPLORATION AND STUDY

II Peter

Led By: Rick Griffith

How do you live faithfully in a culture that no longer appreciates faith? Peter tells us in his last letter to the churches that it is only in "His divine power".

Peter's second letter begins with an exhortation to spiritual growth. Peter leads us through the stages all of us must pass as we mature in our walk with Christ. As we mature we become useful and fruitful in our knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. Peter openly affirms the reliability and authority of the Scriptures as he goes on to warn us of false prophets and teachers and how to identify them.

Ray Stedman writes on 2nd Peter – "Every word of it is so pertinent, so contemporary, so filled with practical advice for the day in which we find ourselves, that it is at once confirmation of the freshness and the vitality of the Word of God, which never gets out of date."

ELECTIVES

Made for Work

Led By: Nathan Cozart, Seth Perry and Heath Casey

What if I told you that the work you do from Monday - Saturday matters to God, in a personal and specific way?

Despite the tendency to see it either as pointless monotony or self-fulfilling infatuation, it is not merely the cursed byproduct of sin. Rather, our work is part of His plan, a reflection of His very nature. What if I told you that God has given you unique strengths that he wants you to use expressly for His glory and the good of others? I am not even implying that you quit your job and go into ministry! The banker, the barista; the mechanic, the mom; the student, the retiree; the programmer, the program manager; the doctor, the dump truck driver: all work has kingdom value.

Every Christian should be able to identify (with passion) how their work participates with God's creativity and cultivation. Join us as we discover the biblical concept of vocational calling and practically answer these questions:

1. Why do we want to work (and need it to lead a fulfilled life)?
2. Why is work so hard?
3. How do we overcome the difficulties and find satisfaction in work, through the gospel.

ELECTIVES, CONTINUED

Changed by the Presence of Jesus - A study in John (Women)

Led By: Allison Griffith

Written by Jesus' best friend, John wants the reader to know Jesus.

John 20:31 says,

"...these things are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God and that by believing you may have life in his name." Many people (disciples, religious leaders, lame, blind, Jews, Samaritans) encounter Jesus in the book of John. All of them are changed by his presence.

Come and meet Jesus in this six-week study in the book of John.
Come and be changed by his presence!
