PAJAMA PARTY DAY

Thursday, January 24th will be our annual "Pajama Party" day. This is an extra special day because your child can wear his or her pajamas to school. We will have a fun day learning about some of the differences between night and day. Some classes are taking on a camping theme. Others are talking about night animals or the night sky.

If your child is not comfortable wearing pajamas to school, he/she may want to wear something that goes along with camping or just have fun in regular play clothes.

Please remember to wear or bring outdoor shoes!

Watch your class calendars to see what fun things your class is bringing (flashlights, pillows, etc...).

Fun ideas from our friends at BUILDING ALL CHILDREN

Tear, Crinkle, Throw – have children take white computer paper, tear it up, and crinkle it up in their hands. This builds fine motor muscles and strengthens the hands. Then they can throw their "paper snowballs" to practice gross motor coordination. Have fun tearing, crinkling, and throwing paper snowballs inside on a cold day!
